(会話文)

Lisa: Good morning, Taro.

Taro: Hi, Lisa. You look very happy. What's up?

Lisa: I'm excited about our school trip to Kyoto from this Wednesday. I will go to a store with my friends after school to buy something to eat and drink for the trip.

Taro: Oh, that sounds good. How will you go there?

Lisa: By bus. We will be on the bus for four hours. All of my classmates will enjoy talking with each other then.

Taro: No. I'm sorry, Lisa. I mean, "How will you go to the store today?"

Lisa: Oh, I see. Today I will go there by bike because the store is near here. Do you want to go with us?

Taro: Yes, I want some pencils and a notebook. I'll go there with you.

Lisa: I'm afraid the store doesn't sell them.

Taro: Oh, really? Then, I won't go there today. I'll go to another store tomorrow. Thank you anyway. By the way, how long will you stay in Kyoto?

Lisa: We will stay there for three days. I plan to go to famous places and eat delicious foods with my classmates.

Taro: What do you want to do first in Kyoto?

Lisa: I want to take pictures in a kimono. I have wanted to wear a kimono since I came to Japan. Do you want to see the pictures after I come back from Kyoto?

Taro: Yes, of course. I'll go to your home to see them. When shall we meet?

Lisa: Well, I think next Sunday will be good. Will you be free on that day?

Taro: Sure. I'm really looking forward to seeing the pictures.

Lisa: Me, too. I hope I will look cute.
